Track 49

D.S. al Coda

In music, symbols can be used to show the form of the song, or organization of the notes. Some symbols indicate places that repeat and skip ahead. So far, you've used repeat signs, and 1st and 2nd ending signs. D.S. al Coda is another sign used to organize a piece of music.

D.S. al Coda means to return to the Coda symbol, play until the words To Coda and then skip to the place near the end of the music marked "coda." A coda is a separate ending section. (The Italian word coda means "tail," literally a "tail ending.")

Sing along as you play the right-hand melody. Identify the two flatted notes. Remember the rule that once a note is flat, it stays flat for the entire measure.
